A JOLLY GO.

The Young People Give a Combination Party and Cake Walk.

A number of the young people met in Rhodes' hall on Oklahoma avenue Saturday evening with the colored mandolin club and proceeded to enjoy the evening. The well society cake walk was the leading feature of the evening. They danced just a little to see if they had forgotten how.

The cake was awarded to Warren Painter and Miss O'Hanlon. J. W. McNeal and F. B. Lucas were the judges. The young people were chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McNeal, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Lucas, Mrs. W. L. Rhodes and Mrs. Cora Grissell.

Those present were: Misses Anna Herwig, Jessie Sampson, Pearl Rhodes, Eva Gregory, George Oldham, Mand Sharum, Caddie Kennedy, Lizzie McNeal, Edith Grissell, Edna Sutton, Mabel Rinehart, Bertha Keach, Minnie Oldham, Messrs. Henry Lindwall, Harry Long, Harry Weinberger, Enoch Bamford, Fred Rhodes, Lloyd Sampson, Chas. Furrow, Lyman Gray, Willard Kimball, Warren Painter.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

This remedy is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and influenza. It has become famous for its cures of these diseases over a large part of the civilized world. The most flattering testimonials have been received, giving accounts of its good works, of the aggravating and persistent coughs it has cured, of severe colds that have yielded promptly to its soothing effects, and of the dangerous attacks of croup it has cured, often saving the life of the child. The extensive use of it for whooping cough has shown that it robs that disease of all dangerous consequences. Sold by all druggists.

THEIR HUMPS FELL OFF.

How a Nan Playing Roulette at Monte Carlo Lost His Wad.

After a particularly dull beginning, the season is now getting brisker. Mrs. Mackay's entertainments have been the leading social feature. She gave a grand dinner at the Hermitage hotel in honor of her daughter, the Princess Galatro Colonna, the guests including Mrs. Beach Grant, Marquis and Marquise d'Artois, the Duke and Duchess of Terranova, Viscount Port Bryan, Earl of Wilton, and others. The table was decorated with Parma violets and pink carnations, producing a singularly pretty effect. J. Pierpont Morgan has arrived at the Cafe Marmon hotel and is seen nightly at the Casino, but never ventures more than a louis stake. The night of his arrival he was pointed out to the attendants of the Casino and immediately a card to the select gaming room reserved for high plays. Mr. Morgan tore up the card, declined the invitation. The select rooms are likely to imperil the Casino license. Several visitors have already been raised and an ugly story is told of the attempted suicide of an Italian duke, but it is impossible to obtain any information from the Casino authorities. Belle Otero, while here played in the ordinary room, winning or losing $100 stakes with equal sang froid. One night she went to a private room where she lost $7,000 in forty minutes and has not gone there since.

General McKinley Osborne, consul general at London, has been among the recent visitors, but next week we are expecting the English and Anglo-American smart division, who follow in the track of the prince of Wales. An extraordinary scene was witnessed in the Casino the other day when a man was seated with a hunchback on either side. On the cloth was a five-franc piece with a hole in it, two yards of cord which he carried a hunchback's turn, besides several other articles. After first stroking the humps of his neighbors he put francs on number 33. He lost, and began over again always betting on the same number. The symbolic figure of his companions, but it never turned up. At last in disgust he got up and went away after giving the deformities two louis, the price agreed on with the supposed masochists. They forthwith began to fight for the possession of the money, tearing each other's hair, kicking and cuffing, till, during the struggle their humps fell on the floor. But for the considerable loss sustained by the gamblers the whole affair seemed like a hoax. Mr. Gordon Bennett is at Beauclieu. Colonel Arthur Paget, whose wife is coming this week with the Duchess of Devonshire, is staying with Lady Alfred Paget. Nice is acquiring a most unsavory reputation in every sense of the word, and is having a ruinously bad season. The great hotel are half full, the English and Americans being driven away by the abusive tone of the Nicols press, together with the outbreak of the drench fever.—Chicago Tribune.

Rev. E. Edwards, pastor of the English Baptist church at Minersville, Pa., when suffering with rheumatism, was advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He says: "A few applications of this liniment proved of great service to me. It subdued the inflammation and relieved the pain. Should any sufferer profit by giving Pain Balm a trial it will please me." For sale by all druggists.

Attention, Elks! If you have ever had a kick on Cream flour we would like to know it. We now have Mr. Dougherty, one of the best millers in the south west in charge of the mill and "Cream" will not suffer any at his hands. We are selling more each day than we did the day before. This is proof. Don't forget Vitality for breakfast.

A New Line For Arkansas.

The Choctaw, Oklahoma & Gulf railroad company has awarded contracts for the construction of one hundred and sixty-four miles of railroad through one of the best agricultural sections of the magnificent state of Arkansas. Work has already commenced and the line will doubtless be in operation by October 1st, 1899.

The location of the line will be as follows:

Beginning at Howe, I. T., the present eastern terminus of the road, and running east to Munroe, entering Arkansas at a point near Hartford where large deposits of coal have been found and where mines will be operated; thence to Mansfield where connection will be made with the St. Louis &amp; San Francisco railroad; thence to Echo, Boccville, Magazine, Marvinville, Danville, Ola, Casa, Houston and East, and thence on the south side of the river to Little Rock, where connection will be made with the Choctaw &amp; Memphis (formerly the Little Rock &amp; Memphis) railroad but which will now become a part of the Choctaw system) thereby putting under one management a great east and west line of railway extending from the Mississippi river to Weatherford, Okla., a distance of nearly six hundred miles and passing through the state of Arkansas, the Indian Territory and penetrating into Oklahoma Territory for one hundred and thirty miles.

The new line passes through the following counties in Arkansas:

COUNTY	POPULATION
Scott	12,635
Logan	30,784
Yell	18,181
Perry	6,538
Pulaski	47,329
Total	104,291

And will cause the establishment of several good trading points and a few large and important towns, due notice of which will be given later.

The new line will control the traffic of the Petit Jean and La Fourche in Fave river valleys, the most productive valleys of the state of Arkansas, producing this year over 50,000 bales of cotton and thousands of bushels of corn and other farm products. Land can be bought cheaply, thereby offering excellent opportunities for enterprising farmers to procure homes in a well settled country, where good schools and churches are already established. The mountain ranges dividing the valleys are covered with magnificent forests of most excellent yellow pine, and the lower ridges and slopes are covered with large quantities of white oak, hickory, ash and other varieties of excellent hardwood timber. It is therefore certain that the lumber industry will be carried on extensively. The western portion of the line in the Indian Territory and Oklahoma is now furnishing a market for 3,000,000 feet of pine lumber per month, which is coming from Texas, Louisiana and Southern Arkansas, but which can all be furnished from mills on the new portion of the road; in addition to which new markets will be made in Oklahoma and Kansas, via the different lines of railway crossing the Choctaw, as follows:

Kansas City, Pittsburg &amp; Gulf railroad, via Howe Junction, I. T.

St. Louis &amp; San Francisco railroad, via Mansfield and Wister Junction.

Missouri, Kansas &amp; Texas railway, via South McAlester, I. T.

Atchison, Topeka &amp; Santa Fe railway, via Oklahoma City, Okla.

Chicago, Rock Island &amp; Pacific railway, via El Reno, Okla.

J. W. F. HENDER, General Manager, Traffic Manager, South McAlester, I. T.
